[illegible]

All you need is love.
But a little chocolate
now and then doesn't hurt.

Now and then it's good
to pause in our PURSUIT
of happiness and
just be happy.

God works wonders
now and then;
Behold a lawyer,
an honest man.

I just want to live
happily ever after.
every now and then.

We should look back now and then.

Of course I love myself every now and then

First we had each other,
then we had you
now we have everything.
