is a habit
to be cultivated

do all things with the
kindness
in your heart

at the end of the day
all that really matters
is you and me

it's all about capturing that one
precious
moment

and suddenly
you just know
that it's time
to let go
and grow

so grateful
for small things,
big things,
and everything
in between

LOVE YOU
